

Arthur Cambas

BELMONT — Arthur Cambas, 60, of 59 Shaker Road, died at his home with Paul and Theresa Leroux on Sunday, July 18, 1999.

Born April 1, 1939 in Goffstown,

Mr. Cambas lived in the Laconia area for 55 years.

He was employed in a variety of positions over the years, most recently at Maltais Farm in Gilmanton. He had also worked at local restaurants, hotels, a laundromat/convenience store in Pittsfield, Lakes Region Greyhound Park and Tilton Ford.

Mr. Cambas volunteered with many local organizations including Meals on Wheels, Salvation Army and New Hampshire Humane Society.

He leaves many friends in the Laconia area and people who have been like family to him including Christine Nicoletta of Franklin and Paul and Theresa Leroux of Belmont.

There will be no calling hours.

Graveside services will be held Thursday at 11 a.m. at Union Cemetery on Academy Street, Laconia. The Rev. Marc Drouin and Seminarian Paul Gilbert of St. Joseph Church in Belmont will officiate. A reception will be held at Easter Seals of New Hampshire, 390 Union Ave., Laconia, directly after the service. Wilkinson-Beane

Arthur Cambas