

Thelma M. Farwell

BELMONT — Mrs. Thelma Manley Farwell, 83, of 32 Countryside Circle and formerly of Laconia, died at the Belknap County Nursing Home, Laconia, Sunday evening, Feb. 7, 1999. She was the widow of George W. Farwell who died in 1984.

Mrs. Farwell was born Aug. 2, 1915 in Salisbury, Vt., the daughter of Roland and Alice (Austin) Manley. She had been a resident of Laconia for more than 40 years moving to Belmont two years ago.

Mrs. Farwell was employed at Vernitron for a number of years. She attended the Laconia Congregational Church and was a former member of the Rebekah Lodge in Weare.

Survivors include a son, Richard Farwell of Daytona Beach, Fla.; four daughters, Barbara Summers of Laconia, Lucille Jones of San Diego, Calif., Patricia Robinson of Martinez Lake, Ariz. and Donna Christy Goss of Belmont; 14 grandchildren; 25 great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandson: a brother, Arnold Manley of Laconia; nephews and nieces. She was predeceased by six brothers.

Calling hours will be held at the Wilkinson-Beane Funeral Home, 164 Pleasant Street, Laconia, Wednesday from 7-9 p.m. using the Carriage House entrance.

Services will be held at the funeral home Thursday at 11 a.m. The Rev. E. Barent Grevatt, pastor of the Laconia Congregational Church, will officiate. Spring burial will be in Union Cemetery, Laconia.