

Elizabeth Ann "Betty" Hoey

Belmont-----Elizabeth Ann "Betty" Hoey, 78, of 13 School Street, died in Laconia on Friday, July 27, 2007.

Mrs. Hoey was born November 3, 1928 in Belmont, N.H., the daughter of William H. and Charlotte (LaFlamme) Fogg.

Mrs. Hoey was a communicant at St. Joseph Parish. She worked in the EKG and EEG Department at Lakes Region General Hospital from 1976-1986 and was the head librarian at the Belmont Library for seven years, retiring in 1993. Mrs. Hoey was a member of the Belmont Historical Society.

Survivors include three daughters, Kathleen A. Lavoie, PhD, of Plattsburg, New York, Jane E. Kidder, RN of Laconia and Ann D. Jewett of Laconia; four sons, Laurence R. Hoey of Laconia, William J. Hoey of Belmont, Richard P. Hoey of Florida and Peter M. Hoey of Gilford;; fourteen grandchildren; seven great grandchildren; a brother, Richard Fogg, of Belmont; a sister, Phyllis J. Hoey, of Belmont and several nephews and nieces. In addition to her parents, Mrs. Hoey was predeceased by a sister, Madeline J. Pike.

There will be no calling hours.

A Memorial Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at St. Joseph Parish, Main Street, Belmont, N. H. on Tuesday, July 31, 2007 at 10:00AM.

Burial will follow in the family lot in St. John Cemetery, Tilton, N. H.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the St. Joseph Parish Altar Society, PO Box 285, Belmont, NH 03220.

Wilkinson-Beane Funeral Home & Cremation Services, 164 Pleasant Street, Laconia, N. H. is in charge of the arrangements.