

Janice C. Johnson

Belmont—Janice C. Johnson, 38, of 14 Vine Yard Way, died peacefully at her home on Saturday, November 3, 2007, surrounded by her family, after having lived with lung cancer for years.

Mrs. Johnson was born December 18, 1968 in Manchester, New Hampshire, the daughter of Roland W. and Jeannine R. (Pinard) Dionne.

She was raised in Manchester where she spent the majority of her life until moving to Belmont in 2003. She graduated from Manchester West High School in 1987 and from Bryant College in 1991 with a Bachelor Of Science Degree in Business Administration.

Mrs. Johnson had been working at Concord Hospital as a purchasing agent until February, 2006.

Mrs. Johnson was a communicant of St. Joseph Parish, Belmont, N. H.

Mrs. Johnson married Craig Henry Johnson on October 21, 2000. They had dated since 1996 and enjoyed camping, snowmobiling and watching movies together. Though never blessed with children of her own, she loved and cherished her husband, family, friends, nieces and nephews. She enjoyed afternoons out on the deck reading a book, gardening and spending time with others close to her heart. She will be remembered for her contagious smile, always putting others first and for her forgiving nature and gentle ways.

Survivors include her husband, Craig H. Johnson, of Belmont; her parents, Roland W. and Jeannine R. Dionne of Manchester; three brothers, Denis Dionne of Maryland, Richard Dionne of Manchester and Michael Dionne of Massachusetts; two sisters, Carmen Gagnon of Goffstown and Elaine Donati of Hooksett; eight nephews, six nieces; a Goddaughter, Alison Dionne, of Maryland and a Godson, Brady Camplin, of Amherst, N. H.
