

Bradley C. Thayer

BELMONT — Bradley C. Thayer, 62, died March 14, 1999 at his residence after a lengthy period of failing health.

Born in Littleton on June 17, 1936, he was the son of the late Winfield W. Thayer and Marjorie E. (Church) Thayer. He spent most of his life in Derry and Hooksett before moving to Belmont.

He was an aircraft technician with the US Air Force. He was also a member of the American Legion Post No. 58 in Belmont.

He was employed by Aeroweld of Lakeport.

He was an avid outdoorsman, loved fishing, hunting and gardening.

He is survived by one son, Steve Thayer of Derry; two daughters, Chris Curran and Lisa Stankevich of Derry; several grandchildren, nieces and nephews; two brothers, Donald Thayer of Winterport, Maine and David Thayer of Mt. Juliet, Tenn.; two sisters, Marilyn Marceau of Ft. Myers, Fla. and Bette Moore of Londonderry.

There will be no calling hours and services will be private. Urn burial will take place at Pleasantview Cemetery, Londonderry, at a later date. The Phaneuf Funeral Homes and Crematorium, 243 Hanover St., Manchester, is in charge of arrangements. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Community Health and Hospice Inc., PO Box 578, Laconia, NH 03247-0578.
