

Article published on August 12, 2004

Leevena M. Wallace, BELMONT - Obituary

August 12, 2004

BELMONT - Leevena M. Wallace, 79, of North Main Street, died yesterday at home.

She was born in Louisville, Ky., the daughter of Allen and Eunice (Harper) Huff.

She was a longtime resident of Belmont.

Wallace worked as a certified nurses assistant for more than 30 years, working for Laconia State School and later at the St. Francis Home in Laconia before retiring.

She was a member of the Emblem Club of both Laconia and Franklin.

Survivors include her husband of 49 years, Frank Wallace of Belmont; four daughters, Pamela Reed of Belmont, Deborah Wallace and Diana Hawkins, both of Laconia and Donna Charbonneau of Littleton; 10 grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

A son, Thomas Simpson, died in 2001.

Calling hours and funeral services will not be held.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Lakes Region Community Health and Hospice Inc., 780 N. Main St., Laconia 03246.

Dewhirst Funeral Home in Laconia is in charge of the arrangements.