FAREWELL ORDER TO 17th N. H. V.

HEADQUARTERS 2D N. HAMP. VOLS.,
DISTRICT OF ST. MARY'S, POINT LOOKOUT, MD.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 14.

September 22, 1863.

Soldiers of the Seventeenth New Hampshire Volunteers :

You are about to part with your comrades of the Second for the more peaceful and happier atmosphere of your domestic firesides. Aroused by the necessities of your country, you assembled under a gallant and accomplished leader with justly high hopes to lead with him a brilliant career. * *

After months of uncertainty, * * the 17th and 2d N. H. Regiments were consolidated, * * since which time you have labored patiently and harmoniously. You had no choice in your disposition—you were not electors of place. Yet, though not sent to battle under the most favorable circumstances, you have comported yourselves as men should, and have secured the respect and friendship of your companions and officers.

Your term of service, though short, has been eventful. You will return to the quiet of your pleasant homes with the proud satisfaction that your career embraced participation in one of the most arduous campaigns and the hardest fought and most glorious battles, in its results, of any of this war. Called to sustain a part which tested your patriotism and valor, the ordeal prepared for you was the occupancy of the most exposed position ; during that terrible contest you stood firmly, shoulder to shoulder, with the familiars of fifteen battles, fighting as valiantly. * *

I thank you for the prompt, brave and efficient performance of duty ; your respect and cheerful obedience to orders, which has been your conduct uniformly during the period I have had the honor to be connected with you in the capacity of a commander. *

ED L. BAILEY,

Col. 2d N. H. V.

JOHN D. COOPER, Adjutant.

CAMP CONSTITUTION,

GENERAL ORDER,
No. 19.

Order of the Day.

THE REVELLE—will be beat at 5 o'clock A. M. by the drums of the company on guard, and is the signal for the men to rise, and to put themselves and their equipments and quarters in order for the day.

PEAS-UPON-A-TRENCHER—at 7 o'clock A. M., is the signal for breakfast. Companies will march or send details to the kitchen for rations, during to-day, in the following order:—

- |    |                       |     |                                    |

One of the commissioned officers or the Orderly Sergeant of each company will accompany their men, preserve order among them, and dispatch them to their quarters as rapidly as possible after receiving their rations. At supper the relief guard will receive their rations first. The Sergeant of the Guard will have his men at the kitchen immediately on the call to supper. Officers of companies will see that the dishes and utensils are returned to the kitchen immediately after meals.

THE TROOP—will be beat at 8 o'clock A. M. for the purpose of assembling the men for duty and inspection at guard mounting. The guard will then be relieved, by detail drawn from such company or companies as the officer of the day may direct.

SURGEON'S CALL immediately after Troop. When all the sick will be reported to the Officer of the Day, who will cause them to be escorted to the Hospital by an orderly detailed for that purpose.

Officers of the Guard will instruct Sentinels to take all green passes from the bearers when they pass in. The Sentinels will return them to the Officer of the Day, who will hand them, on application, to the Commissioned Officers or Orderly Sergeants of Companies. Standing passes are on a small white card. All others are to be taken up when the bearers pass out from the lines.

Reports are to be presented or sent to Head Quarters at 9 o'clock A. M.

At 9 1-2 o'clock Companies will march to the Parade under direction of Regimental Officers for drill.

ROAST BEEF—the signal for dinner, will be beat at 12 o'clock, noon.

At 2 1-2 o'clock. Squad and company drill on the Parade Ground.

THE RETREAT—at 5 o'clock P. M. Roll call and evening dress parade, by companies.

SUPPER—at 7 o'clock P. M.

THE TATTOO—at 9 o'clock P. M.—when the lights are to be extinguished, and quarters kept quiet until morning.

Platoon officers are charged with the duty of immediate supervision of the police of their respective divisions. They will encourage their men in all reasonable and proper recreation or amusement, while off duty; but will strictly prohibit, and put stop to, smoking, gambling, or other dangerous and vicious practices, in quarters.

His Excellency the Commander-in-chief desires notice to be promulgated in Camp, that the quota of New Hampshire Volunteers for service under the Proclamation of the President, of the third of May instant, is one Regiment, of not exceeding 1046 men, to serve for three years, or during the war, unless sooner discharged.

The opportunity to re-enlist for this service is now offered to the men already assembled in this place, giving them the preference over others who are ready to fill the ranks. Officers in temporary commission will carry on the enlistment in their respective companies, as rapidly as possible. The regiment will probably be ordered to Washington as soon as completed and equipped. Blank enlistment papers will be furnished by the Quartermaster, and are to be returned to him when completed.

Lieut. JOHN S. RAND is hereby appointed Officer of the Day, and is to be respected and obeyed accordingly.

By command of BRIGADIER GENERAL GEORGE STARK.

O. W. LULL, Aide-de-camp.

TESTIMONIAL TO CHAPLAIN ADAMS.

To Whom it May Concern:

As the subscribers expect soon to be mustered out of service, we desire to express our appreciation of the character and services of our Chaplain, REV. J. W. ADAMS.

It is but justice to him to state that his moral, christian, and ministerial character is above reproach. His love of country, his practical sympathy for the sick and wounded, his appropriate counsels and efficient public ministrations, together with his social qualities, have won for him the respect and affectionate regard of both officers and men.

In every battle in which the regiment has been engaged since he joined it, he has performed his duty with bravery, always having been "under fire," and frequently at the extreme front, assisting the wounded, comforting the dying, and giving to the dead a christian burial. His services in the Hospital as well as the field, deserve mention.

The sick will hold him in grateful remembrance for his religious services, the distribution of reading, the faithful appropriation of comforts furnished by charitable societies, and many offices of kindness.

As the agent of the regiment in holding, disbursing, and transmitting many thousand dollars of its funds, the most perfect satisfaction has been given.

In the observance of the Sabbath by regular public religious services, he has been persistent, and, considering the difficulties which are peculiar to army life, he has had very great success.

If in the providence of God we are called to sunder our present relations, we shall carry with us many pleasant memories of our association with him. And wherever in the future he may be called to labor, we unhesitatingly recommend him as worthy of confidence, respect, and support; and trust he will ever receive that honorable consideration to which he is entitled by periling his life for the welfare of his regiment and the salvation of our country.

JOAB N. PATTERSON,

Colonel and Bvt. Brig. Gen.,

and all the other Officers of the Regiment.

To Messrs. J. N. Patterson, Bvt. Brig. Gen., and all the Commissioned Officers of the 2d Regiment N. H. Vols.

I hereby acknowledge the reception of the testimonial in which you so unanimously join to honor me for my humble services as your chaplain. To receive such unqualified praise from the intelligent men with whom I have been so intimately associated for more than two years past, is more than I could expect; and any expressions which I may be able to coin are insufficient to convey to you my appreciation of the compliment. I can only say I have tried by a faithful discharge of the multifarious duties of my office to deserve your kind remembrance. To labor in such a cause, to be able to minister to the temporal and spiritual wants of such men, and to be thus commended, will be a satisfaction more precious than gold, and more lasting than the parchment on which you have been pleased to subscribe your names. This roll shall be my talisman, by whose magic power many of the sweetest and most thrilling memories of my past life shall be made perennial; and from which inspiration shall be taken for the highest aims and for the noblest purposes. May the blessing of God and a grateful people be your recompense! Though victory perches upon our banners, and our peaceful homes, dearer than ever before, beckon us away, it is not without a tinge of sadness we say at last, farewell! Farewell to the dear brave boys we have laid in their distant soldier graves! Farewell to the living brave! We shall not all of us meet again in time. In Heaven we may. And now, while the parting grasp of friendship is yet warm, shall we not all unite in saying, In Heaven we will!

Most respectfully, &c.,

JOHN W. ADAMS.

JOSEPH A. GILMORE,

Governor.

THE CHICKAHOMINY.

AIR—“The Happy Land of Canaan.”

RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED TO BRIG. GEN. GROVER AND HIS GALLANT BRIGADE.

BY W. F. S.*

Did you see the bloody fray,
On the glorious fifth of May,
When we whipped the rebel legions most uncommonly?
(Spoken—Well, I guess we did,)
Though they fought like very Turks,
To protect their bristling works,
And the line of the sacred Chickahominy.

CHORUS.—Oh! Oh! Oh!

Rebel stock is getting low,
Joe Johnson ain't a Bonaparte or Jomini,
And Richmond ain't so sure
From the Yankees it's secure,
Tho' it lies far beyond the Chickahominy.

At Williamsburg they stood,
In the strength of fort and wood,
Resolved, if McClellan dared to come on, he—
(Spoken—They knew he was coming, too.)
Should have his mortal fill
Of their rifle balls and shell,
And die before he reached the Chickahominy.

CHORUS.—Oh! Oh! Oh!

Bragging would not do.
Joe Johnson warn't a Bonaparte or Jomini;
And Richmond wasn't sure
From the Yankees 'twas secure,
Tho' it lay far beyond the Chickahominy.

*The initials are those of Colonel William F. Small of the Twenty-sixth Pennsylvania. Only three or four days after the battle of Williamsburg, Lieutenant Joseph A. Hubbard brought the manuscript to the author of this volume, who procured its printing in sheet form. It held its popularity as a camp song in Hooker's Division, and many of the old broadside sheets are still carefully preserved and treasured.

When Hooker came along,
Tho' scarce ten thousand strong,
He thrashed their fifty thousand like a Dominie, (Spoken—He gave it to them right and left, like our old school-master used to do at Briar Bottom, but when he came to touch up their rear, didn't they make tracks for the river?)
And he made the rebels know
"Double quick" they'd have to go
To the "last ditch" on the muddy Chickahominy.

CHORUS.—Oh! Oh! Oh!

They knew it was just so,
Joe Johnson warn't a Bonaparte, &c., &c.

The brave New Jersey Blues
Gave the traitors all their dues,
While the Excelsior boys from Mozart Hall and Tammany
No choice the rebels gave
But a stampede or the grave,
The Styx or the nearer Chickahominy.

CHORUS.—Oh! Oh! Oh! &c., &c.

The Massachusetts First
Like a tempest on them burst,
While th' Eleventh gave them lessons in astronomy,
(Spoken—Well, I guess they did make them see STARS.)
And the brave New Hampshire Second
Kind of rather guessed and reckoned
They'd not stop 'till they reached the Chickahominy.

CHORUS.—Oh! Oh! Oh! &c., &c.

And the Keystone Twenty-sixth
In the bloody battle mixed,
Making havoc in poor Rebeldom's gastronomy;
(Spoken—They hadn't such a stomachful for a long time.)
And all the traitor sinners
Who didn't get their dinners
Hurried up the cakes for tea at Chickahominy.

CHORUS.—Oh! Oh! Oh! &c., &c.

Then our reinforcements came
 To finish out the game,
 According to 1 : 40 Deuteronomy ;
 (Spoken—See chapter 1, verse 40, and following, of the Sacred Book, "and when found, make a note of it.")
 And Northern lead and steel
 Made the Godless rebels reel
 To their Kadish on the dirty Chickahominy.

CHORUS.—Oh ! Oh ! Oh ! &c., &c.

Oh ! light lie each head
 Of our brave, immortal dead ;
 To the wounded be the care of home's economy ;
 And may the sound and well
 With the blood of rebels swell
 The tide of their purple Chickahominy.

CHORUS.—Oh ! Oh ! Oh !

We'll make them feel and know,
 Joe Johnson ain't a Bonaparte or Jomini ;
 And we sing this loyal ditty
 In Richmond's rebel city,
 When, conquering, we cross the Chickahominy.
 (Spoken—Which will be very soon, if not before.)
